Dolphy celebrates 80

THE Philippines' King of Comedy began his birthday celebration with a series of events beginning with the launch of his first autobiography, entitled Dolphy: Hindi Ko Ito Narating Mag-Isa, as told to Bibeth Orteza. Along with the book is his two-part documentary DVD detailing his personal and public life.

Eric Quizon, publisher of the tell-all book and organizer of the highly-attended affair was on hand to greet guests from the entertainment, fashion, political and business sectors. Among the well-wishers were Dolphy's good friends, Nena Vera Perez of Sampaguita Pictures, Susan Roces, Gloria Romero, Eddie Garcia, Eddie Gutierrez and Annabelle Rama, Robert Arevalo and Barbara Perez, Marichu Vera Perez, Gina de Venecia and Armida Siguion-Reyna.

Upon entering the NBC Tent, venue of Dolphy's 80th celebration, guests were welcomed and treated with a photo exhibit courtesy of Hewlett-Packard. It featured photos of Dolphy by renowned photographer Jun de Leon and various old photos from the Quizon family's collection.

Guests indulged in a sumptuous cocktail feast sponsored by Margarita Fores' Cibo Di M and overflowing drinks served by Ralph's Wines & Spirits and Hardy's Wine.

Professor Randy David, Mabel David, Leo Abaya, Dan Matutina and Bing Camacho were in attendance to talk to the press and guests on their experience in the making of Dolphy's controversial "Taglish" book – the first of its kind in the Philippines.

Other showbiz celebrities who paid tribute were Leo Martinez, Edu Manzano, Willie Revillame, Gary and Angeli Valenciano, Ricky Davao, Monsour del Rosario, Dawn Zulueta, Juliana Palermo, Angelu de Leon, brothers Randy and Rowell Santiago, Nanette Medved-Po, Cherry Pie Picache, film directors Carlitos Siguion-Reyna, Joel Lamangan and Mel Chionglo.

ABS-CBN bigwigs Charo Santos-Concio, Leo Katigbak, Linggit Tan, Chit Guerrero and Bong Osorio with business luminaries Guillermo Luz, Oscar Sanz, and Atty. Alex Cabrera celebrated the momentous event with Dolphy and family.

Other well-wishers who toasted to the continuous success of the celebrant were Senate President Manuel Villar, Senators Chiz Escudero, Mar Roxas with Korina Sanchez, and Bong Revilla.

Also seen were fashion icons Tweety de Leon

Gonzalez, Suyen Chi, Tonichi Nocum, Annette Coronel, Tetta Ortiz, Mega's Sari Yap, Raymund Isaac, Joji Dingcong, Jack de Mesa, Liza Ilarde of Travelife Mag.

The Dolphy Aid Para Sa Pinoy Foundation was introduced that evening by foundation president Eric Quizon wherein he enumerated the foundation's objectives – managing and operating a school for the performing arts and college scholarships for deserving children of OFWs.

Other sponsors of the successful event were ABS-CBN, Drs. Manny & Pie Calayan of Calayan Surgi-Centre, Inc., Smart Communications, Yahoo! Philippines, Bench, San Miguel Corporation, Coca-Cola and Viva Mineral Water.

Dolphy with Zsa Zsa Padilla, and sons Ronnie, Eric, Jeffrey, Vandolph and Boy2, will be traveling to North America in October for a series of concerts and the book tour. It will kick-off at the Shrine Auditorium in Los Angeles on October 11, followed by shows at the Silver Legacy Resort & Casino in Reno, Nevada on October 25. Other cities are Seattle, Vancouver, Toronto and Edmonton.
