GMA cuts short self-quarantine

by PAOLO ROMERO

MANILA – President Arroyo checked out on July 2 from the Asian Hospital in Muntinlupa City after two days of self-quarantine as a precautionary measure against the spread of the A(H1N1) flu virus.

The President went on self-quarantine last Tuesday after arriving from a 12-day trip to Japan, Colombia, Brazil, and Hong Kong Monday night.

Press Secretary Cerge Remonde said Arroyo checked out of the hospital at 2 pm after doctors gave her a clean bill of health.

"She underwent certain check-ups while on quarantine and all the results were okay," Remonde said. "She has returned to Malacañang."

He said Arroyo called him up to relay the news after she left the hospital.

He said Arroyo will continue her rest at the Palace for a few more days by minimizing her appointments and public engagements, but would do her paperwork in her office.

"I think she's just eager to work more in the Palace than in the hospital," Remonde said.

Executive Secretary Eduardo Ermita said Mrs. Arroyo did some work while on self-imposed isolation at the Asian Hospital and conferred with her Cabinet by telephone. ■

US envoy: fund row won't stop 'Balikatan'

by CYNTHIA BALANA

MANILA – The joint military exercise Balikatan (shoulder-to-shoulder) between the Philippines and the United States will continue despite allegations of corruption against some Philippine military officials in the handling of funds intended for Filipino troops, US Ambassador Kristie Kenney said.

In a radio interview, Kenney said that funds allotted for US troops in all Balikatan exercises were fully accounted for. Both the US and the Philippine governments put in money for their troops for this annual exercise.

Embattled Navy official Lieutenant Senior Grade Nancy Gadian earlier accused her former superior of having pocketed a portion of the funds intended for the RP-US Balikatan exercises in 2007. Gadian herself is under investigation by the Navy's Efficiency and Separation Board for insubordination and desertion.

Gadian claimed that retired Lieutenant General Eugenio Cedo, then chief of the Western Mindanao Command (Westmincom), used the month-long Balikatan in Jolo, Sulu as a "milking cow." She said that of the P46 million provided by the Americans, only P2.3 million was released to Filipino soldiers. Cedo denied the allegations.

But Kenney said she would leave the accounting of funds intended for Filipino troops to the Philippine side.

"We looked back at all of our funds and we're 100 percent confident that they went to exactly where they were supposed to go. I can't speak for the Philippine side because it's obviously not my business to investigate their funds," the ambassador said.

On what exercises to conduct, Kenney said the US Armed Forces would usually submit a recommendation to the US defense secretary for what type of training the troops would need for the next year.

Balikatan has been a big exercise every year. I assume we will continue but I will let our four-star general to make the recommendation to the defense chief," she said.

"I think we enjoy having exercise here because our troops like to train here with Filipinos," she said.

She pointed out that lots of Filipino soldiers have been in the US studying in the Naval Academy, West Point and the Air Force Academy. ■

Cabral not running for senator in 2010

MANILA – Social Welfare Secretary Esperanza Cabral said on June 30 she will not run for senator in the May 2010 elections.

"I am very categorical in my answer that I am a non-politician and a non-candidate. I am amused that I am being considered as a candidate but I am afraid that it will interfere with our job in the DSWD," Cabral said in a press briefing at the Department of Social Welfare and Development head office in Quezon City.

Cabral is reportedly being groomed to be one of the senatorial candidates of the administration in 2010.

"I don't want other people to think that we are doing our job for the sake of the candidacy of the secretary of the DSWD. I have no plans to be a candidate at all," said Cabral.

Cabral, a noted cardiologist, is a former director of the Philippine Heart Center. ■

Palace orders...

Roxas has filed for a writ of amparo with the Court of Appeals against President Macapagal-Arroyo and top military and defense officials. The writ of amparo is a form of legal protection for those whose lives and liberty are being threatened by state agents.

Government officials identified as respondents in a writ of amparo would be held accountable if anything happens to a person who has been granted the writ. ■
