In these hard times, eating out or having guests over for a party can be a drain in the pocket. But with the long Labor Day week-end coming, how can the Filipinos’ love for getting together and eating good food be satisfied, without hurting the family budget or sacrificing on quality and taste?

Island Pacific’s Presyong Sulit Sale is the answer!

Ever mindful of giving Filipino families the greatest value for their money, especially in these hard times, Island Pacific has slashed its prices up to 50% off for this special Labor Day Weekend Sale.

“We consider our customers as family. That’s why we are doing our best to ease the pressure off by lowering our prices to the bare minimum,” said Mimi Cortez, Island Pacific’s Price Coordinator. “We know how important it is for our kababayans to celebrate together. Thus, by slashing down our grocery costs – by up to 50% – we can help Pinoys enjoy good food and focus on what is really important, especially in times like this - friends, family, and togetherness,” Cortez added.

Island Pacific Supermarket provides exceptional customer service and the best complete line of seafood, meat, produce, and other Asian food products that satisfy the different needs of the Filipino community. Located in the areas with large concentrations of Filipinos, Island Pacific has become a one-stop shop for our kababayans in Union City, Vallejo, Panorama, West Covina, Cerritos, and Los Angeles.
