

AS1 LA to help out victims of Typhoon Ondoy

Donation Boxes at the Will Call Table to help our brothers & sisters in the Philippines

THE two most sought-after performers in Manila finally agreed to sing together in one show — AS1! This concert is considered historic as the two respected performers are coming together in one stage. It took five years for Starmedia Entertainment to convince and schedule a common ground for both stars. Anna Puno, CEO of Starmedia, exclaims "This is unprecedented. It took a while for us to put these artists together back to back. Both singers have difficult schedules but we were able to finally manage the right time. Starmedia was just lucky." It is indeed one of those lucky breaks that Starmedia got to mount this concert event of the year...but not so for our kababayans back home who were recently hit by Typhoon Ondoy. Anna Puno states, "We would like to help out our kababayans back home and what better way to make people aware of our efforts than by making our AS1 concert a channel for heartfelt and generous contributions from Filipinos abroad."

In light of the recent tragedy in the Philippines caused by Typhoon Ondoy, the AS1 team in Los Angeles, spearheaded by Starmedia Entertainment is making an effort to help our kababayans back home. On October 17 at the Pasadena Civic Auditorium lobby, Starmedia Entertainment will set-up boxes where you can put your donations for the typhoon and flood victims. Proceeds will directly go to ABS-CBN Foundation and they will be the beneficiary organization that will handle all your contributions for our kababayans back home.

Every cent and penny you give will go a long way to help rebuild the lives of thousands of Filipinos affected by this tragedy, as Starmedia makes its greatest effort in raising awareness to extend help, we knock on your kind hearts to join us in making this AS1 concert more meaningful. Not only will the 2 artists unite for their concert but this as well is the chance for all of us to be united as one, as Filipinos.

Join Starmedia Entertainment and the AS1 LA Team who will come together on October 17(Saturday), 7:30pm at the Pasadena Civic Auditorium to raise whatever we can to help our kababayans...as Martin and Gary take to the stage and give it all they've got as one.

The show is presented to you by The Law Offices of Wilner and O'Reilly, Island Pacific Supermarkets, Atlas Shippers International, TFC (The Filipino Channel), Honda of Pasadena, Pinoy Kitchen, Aqua Imaging & Design, Brookshire Dental Center, Belo Medical Group, First Nation's Funding, Gandi Skin Care Clinic, Monet Salon, Jun Encarnacion Salon, All American Hospice, O' Skin Care Clinic, Weekend Balita, Tribune USA, Pinoy Weekly, The Travel Outlet, Xclusive Staffing & Services.

'Unity' for Ondoy

by LOU CABALDE

WITH the massive devastation brought about by Typhoon Ondoy in the morning of September 26, 2009, hundreds of Manileños were displaced, lives lost, material possessions vanished. In a blink of an eye, their busy lives were put to a halt, facing an unknown tomorrow.

Days after the waters have subsidied, Metro Manila and the outlying regions were largely unprepared to handle the evacuees, the injured and much less the contamination that the flood waters brought.

It is during these difficult times that the utmost hospitality and bravery of the Filipinos are revealed. That in spite of their loss and misery, Filipinos from all walks of life, rich or poor, Christians or non-Christians help one another. Even those who have nothing to give but their time and service; this is just one of the reasons why we thank God for making us who we are....Filipinos.

In a few weeks, The Unity Tour Concert will kick off and visit 4 different cities in the United States and Canada. The Philippines' Pop Diva, Kuh Ledesma together with the producers of the show, Headline Concepts, Caselin Productions and JIR Foundation, felt the need to help all our kababayan's back home.

When Kuh conceptualized this concert years ago, her main goal was to Unite Filipinos all over the United States and Canada to bring forth the message of Hope and Inspiration. After the overwhelming devastation of
