

Osang finds a new love... at last?

MANILA - Perhaps love is truly lovelier the second time around. Take the case of Rosanna Roces (or Osang) who is ready to exchange I do's with her lawyer-boyfriend as soon as the court hands down its decision in her petition to declare her marriage to Tito Molina null and void.

"It's a bigamous marriage. Kasal s'ya (Tito) sa iba so it's null and void. Declaration na lang ang kailangan," Rosanna says during the presscon for this year's Cinema One Originals' Digital Film Festival where she stars in one of the five digital film finalists titled Wanted: Border.

Osang feels it's about time she found a new love after her separation from Tito five years ago. Besides, she need not worry about her children as Grace and Onyok are mature enough to stand on their own two feet.

But Rosanna is mum on the identity of her single, Lovelier the second time around.

ful to the people who were there at the scene and gave their support. "I had to let it go, I mean, for me, it's just a waste of time and energy if I focus on it".

When asked if there was a third party involved, Lovi calmly said no. She was rumored to be linked with Ronald Singson, the son of Governor Chavit Singson. She said that they should not involve him because they are just friends.

When asked what her message is for that particular person who caused the break-up, she simply said "Laugh out loud." ■

The three quills symbolize art (through the Balikbayan Museum and Library), journalism and Filipino-American Symphony Orchestra (FASO). We use the colors of the Philippine flag to connote nationalism. The quills were formed together into a flame to represent passion and love of country.
