World-renowned conductor Edwin Outwater to lead

'Sgt. Pepper Live' at the Las Vegas Hilton

LAS VEGAS—Prominent conductor Edwin Outwater is joining the Sgt. Pepper Live project once again to lead the full symphony orchestra for Sgt. Pepper Live featuring Cheap Trick at the Las Vegas Hilton. He was the guest conductor at both Sgt. Pepper Live shows at the Hollywood Bowl and will be guest conducting the Las Vegas Hilton shows, Sept. 13-15, 17-19 and 21-23.

Edwin Outwater is currently the music director of the Kitchener-Waterloo Symphony in Ontario, Canada. Prior to his current position, he served as resident conductor of the San Francisco Symphony and held the post of music director of the San Francisco Symphony Youth Orchestra. In both capacities, he worked closely with Michael Tilson Thomas, accompanying the orchestra on tour and conducting numerous concerts each season. He made his subscription debut in 2002, with Kurt Masur conducting Britten's War Requiem, and has collaborated with Yo-Yo Ma, Evelyn Glennie and many others. His consistently innovative programs have featured the works of composers such as John Adams, Thomas Adès, Chen Yi, Gabriela Lena Frank, HK Gruber, Lou Harrison, Robin Holloway, Nathaniel Stookey and Tan Dun.

Internationally, Outwater has appeared with the BBC National Orchestra of Wales, the Adelaide Symphony, the New Zealand Symphony Orchestra and the National Youth Orchestra of New Zealand. He has put together many music education programs for youths and has been on the faculties of the University of Tulsa, the Idyllwild Arts Academy and the University of California, Santa Barbara. In 2004, he was awarded the Leonard Bernstein award for excellence in educational programming and the MET LIFE award for community outreach. Outwater is a Harvard University graduate with a master's degree in conducting from the University of California, Santa Barbara.

Cheap Trick is best known for its classic singles I Want You To Want Me and Surrender. The band recorded the album All Shook Up in 1980 with Sir George Martin and Geoff Emerick, producer and engineer of The Beatles' Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band. Emerick will continue to be in charge of the audio production for Sgt. Pepper Live. He received Grammy awards for the engineering of Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band and Abbey Road.

Tickets for Sgt. Pepper Live featuring Cheap Trick at the Las Vegas Hilton, Sept.13-15, 17-19 and 21-23 (all at 8pm) are priced at $65, $80 and $95 plus tax and fees. A portion of the proceeds for each show's ticket sales will be donated to the Grammy Foundation and MusiCares. Tickets can be purchased at the Las Vegas Hilton box office or by logging onto www.lvhilton.com, www.vegas.com, www.ticketmaster.com or by phone at (702) 732-5755 or 1-800-222-5361.
