

John Lloyd Cruz—single, available and looking...for new neighbors!

FRESH from the runaway success of In My Life, it's not a surprise that John Lloyd Cruz is all smiles these days. But it's not just his latest hit movie that's making the Box Office King glow with delight. It's also the fact that he has been chosen by Sta. Lucia Land, Inc., the country's leading real estate developer, as its brand ambassador.

Known for his debonair good looks and his wholesome, friendly personality, John Lloyd was chosen by Sta. Lucia for embodying many of its values. And the dashing young actor is enthusiastic about endorsing the company, as he has been a believer in Sta. Lucia for many years running.

In fact, he was brought up in a Sta. Lucia community, where he first learned about traditional, family-oriented values.

While he was strolling inside the Sta. Lucia Mall, he was spotted by a talent scout, who convinced him to enter showbiz, and the rest, as they say, is history. From portraying different roles in movies and TV shows, the Sta. Lucia resident has since evolved into a highly accomplished actor, bagging lead roles in widely followed teleseries and smash blockbusters.

John Lloyd is particularly excited about Sta. Lucia's first condotel project in Metro Manila, the La Breza Tower. It's certainly perfect for him, as La Breza is strategically located at Mother Ignacia St., which is a mere walking distance from ABS-CBN, where he stars in many of the network's shows.

It's also close to the Ayala TriNoMa Mall and SM City North EDSA, as well as the leisure strips of Tomas Morato and Timog Avenue, making shopping and recreation for the busy and much sought after matinee idol easily within reach.

La Breza's amenities, including a swimming pool and a fitness gym, complement John Lloyd's healthy and active lifestyle. The units' design and interiors are sleek and modern, which fits the young actor's personal style.

Now based in Quezon City, John Lloyd feels that La Breza is the ideal place for him to relax and unwind after a hard day's work. A sanctuary of comfort and serenity, the tower has 24-hour security and ample parking spaces. It also includes elegant function rooms where meetings and special events can be held.

For John Lloyd, La Breza is not just a home—it is a wise investment. He can actually get his condotel units leased out on a timeshare basis, which can give him a source of revenue. As an additional stream of income, it's truly a worthwhile asset.

Life really is a breeze for John Lloyd at La Breza and with Sta. Lucia. He's proud to be part of a real estate company which has become synonymous with building high-quality homes and developing well-planned communities all over the Philippines.

The question is: will John Lloyd finally find the girl who will capture his heart? This remains to be seen, but one thing is for sure: he's definitely single, available and—with his La Breza unit—looking for new neighbors!
