Scott Price named President and CEO of Walmart Asia

Executive will lead 630 retail units; more than 100,000 associates

BENTONVILLE, Ark.—Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., today announced that Scott Price has been named executive vice president, president and CEO, Walmart Asia. In this role, he will report directly to Doug McMillon, president and CEO, Walmart International, and have responsibility for the company's current operations in Asia, including China, India and Japan as well as business development in the Asia region. Based in Walmart's regional office in Hong Kong, Price will assume his role Oct. 15.

Price most recently served as CEO of DHL Express Europe. Prior to that, he was Chief Executive Officer, DHL Express Asia Pacific. He also was the president of DHL Express Japan, DHL's largest market in the Asia Pacific region. Prior to joining DHL, Price spent a decade with the Coca-Cola Co. During that period, he assumed various roles which included country leader in Japan, and as Director and Country Manager in China, which included Hong Kong, Macau and Mongolia.

"Scott brings tremendous global and regional experience and expertise to this position. He is the ideal candidate to lead this highly competitive region," McMillon said. "In his roles with Coca Cola and DHL, he has established a history of delivering results in the Asian markets. He knows the countries, he knows the customers, he knows how to run a business and he knows the region's potential. We are eager to leverage his insight and capabilities to further our efforts in this region."

According to Price, "I am excited to join Walmart and build on its strategy to save people money so they can live better around the world. I know the Asian business is growing at a fast pace, and I'm looking forward to being part of a company that is making such a positive difference in this global economy."

Walmart has a significant presence in Asia with more than 100,000 associates and approximately 630 units in China, India and Japan.

A US native, Price earned a Bachelor of Arts in business administration from the University of North Carolina. He also holds an MBA and a Master of Arts in Asian studies from the University of Virginia.

to be done to make The Star Magic World Tour possible. The fans were not aware that the show had a major problem. The visa applications for the performers were actually denied about 3 weeks prior to the concert dates. Obviously, no visas, no stars, no concert show! The producers then approached Atty. Michael J. Gurfinkel to help bail them out of this major fiasco that would have disappointed thousands of fans.

One can simply do the math and imagine the presented challenge. A single entertainer visa application (O visa) would normally take 2 months to be approved. With over 40 visa applications to work on in less than 3 weeks, many documents need to be gathered from artists with hectic schedules (resumes, experience evaluation, awards, endorsements, producer contracts, etc.). However, the Law Offices of Michael J. Gurfinkel burned the midnight oil, toiling over huge amounts of paperwork and documentation. And a few days before the artists were scheduled to fly to the US, the cases were approved and the visas were issued! Wow! What a relief. And this brought so much joy to both fans and celebrities alike. In fact, for some stars, it was their first time in the US.

And this Sunday, Star Magic artists—Yeng Constantino, Laarni Lozada, Chokoleit, Victor Basa and Richard Poon—sit down with "attorney-of-last-hope" Michael J. Gurfinkel, to talk about all the anxiety and ultimate joy they went through over their visas. Watch the most popular immigration show on television—Citizen Pinoy—this Sunday, at 5:40pm (PST) with a replay on Wednesday, at 12:15am (PST) on TFC. Citizen Pinoy also airs on ANC-US every Sunday at 1am with replays on Sundays at 9am and Thursdays at 8pm, all PST; and on ANC in the Philippines every Sunday at 4pm, with replays at 12 midnight on Mondays.

Citizen Pinoy is made possible with the support of friends who are committed to giving back to the Filipino community: Asian Journal—with circulation in Northern and Southern California, Nevada, and in the East Coast; and Arko Foods. Citizen Pinoy is also supported by ABS-CBN Global's key product offerings: Star Kargo, Starry Starry Store, ABS-CBN Telecom and TFCDirect.
